Abstracts

In 2020 when consumers were required to stay at home as much as possible to curb the transmission of COVID-19, bulk dairy ice cream was increasingly purchased for sharing at home, thus leading to double-digit growth in retail volume and value sales. However, Singapore is expected to roll out its vaccination programme successfully, which will allow the economy to open up more in the second half of 2021, resulting in less time spent at home and thus fewer consumption occasions. Therefore, given th...
