Abstracts

This report examines the early impact of the war in Ukraine on food and nutrition in Russia. Product availability, prices and company presence are seeing inevitable shifts, as a result of sanctions and decisions by key players to withdraw from the market. Essential food items like baby food are showing more resilience and are still in high demand, while discretionary purchases and products typically manufactured by multinational players are likely to suffer most in the short and longer term.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
