Abstracts

In-car entertainment in the United Arab Emirates is experiencing fluctuations in demand in line with changing consumer behaviour in 2023. While demand for in-car speakers remains positive, the overall category continues to post declining retail volume sales, mainly driven by in-car navigation. These changes can be attributed to factors such as advancements in technology, changing consumer preferences, and the integration of in-car entertainment systems into other vehicle features.

Euromonitor International's In-Car Entertainment in United Arab Emirates report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the in-home, portable and in-car consumer electronics products markets at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
