The main factor behind the strong performance of incontinence products in 2015 was the ageing population. This demographic factor translated into a larger consumer base and volume sales benefited from this. However, the category also profited from other factors linked to consumer habits and product perception.

Euromonitor International's Incontinence in Belgium report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2011-2015, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
