Abstracts

There remains a certain level of taboo attached to incontinence in Denmark. This is shaping product and packaging development as consumers desire solutions which are very discreet. The launch of ultra-thin and light products was particularly apparent in 2015, for example thanks to products such as Tena Men Protective Shield Extra Light.

Euromonitor International's Incontinence in Denmark report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2011-2015, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts to 2020 illustrate how the market is set to change.
