Abstracts

Indoor furniture appeared in a better place in 2014 than at any time since the recession started. Growth returned in the US, and China's consumer market remains strong as many households become first-time buyers. However, ongoing currency woes have impacted global growth and consumers in developed countries are increasingly inspired by other alternatives to brand new furniture. The industry needs to better care for an ageing population and also be on top of the sustainability issue.

Euromonitor International's Indoor Furniture: Category Overview global briefing offers the big picture view of the size and shape of the Home and Garden market. The report delivers strategic insight into some of the key areas of the market, including emerging regions, countries and categories, as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies opportunities, analyses leading companies and brands, and offers analysis of major factors influencing the market. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success

Product coverage: Gardening, Home Furnishings, Home Improvement, Homewares.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
