Abstracts

The ING group has entered the final phase of its restructuring programme, which is set to involve the separation of its banking and insurance activities, as required by the European Commission in order to attain its approval for the Dutch state aid it received following the near-collapse during 2008/2009. ING group has divested some of its Asian insurance branches, with the company choosing as its motto for 2014: “Simpler, Stronger, Sustainable”. With its focus firmly fixed on Europe and some of...
