Abstracts

In 2017, the environment of intermediaries continued to change. One of the major factors to affect players was a new law, which came into force on 1 January 2017. The new law increased the financial burden on tour operators and strengthened their liability, while the legal protection of Russian tourists was increased. In addition, the renewal of relations with Turkey did not restore consumer demand for the destination, while Egypt was still closed for Russian tourists. Moreover, various politica..
