Abstracts

Intermediaries saw steady growth during 2017, despite the overall economic slowdown impacting the oil and energy sector in particular during 2016. 2017 proved to be a better year for the players in the market. The global slowdown in the corporate business segment contributed to the slow growth during 2016; however, during 2017 most players reported growth in uptake and the consolidation of services. While corporate business sales grew by 10% in current value terms during 2016, leisure sales grew...
