Abstracts

Intermediaries posted strong growth of 7% in 2017, which was driven largely in part by online operators. In 2017, online sales comprised 62% of all intermediaries' retail value sales, with these operators' sales through digital channels reaching USD143.4 billion for the year. In the same year, online intermediaries outperformed offline in terms of value sales growth, which stood at 9% and 2%, respectively. The rapid development of online sales has been supported by the strong growth in US consum...
