Abstracts

While store-based retailing has continued to struggle for growth in 2018 with more outlet closures being seen, internet retailing continues to go from strength to strength. E-commerce remains the primary focus of most retailers with players investing in introducing, updating and improving their online platforms. For example, in 2018 H&M signed a partnership agreement with Klarna which will help to streamline its online and mobile payment options as well as introducing Klarna's 'try before you bu...
