Abstracts

Sales of jeans continued to see healthy growth in current value terms in 2023. Premium jeans remained the largest subcategory in terms of value, having continued to benefit from the presence of many established brands, including the iconic Levi's with its limited-edition collections. However, economy jeans saw the fastest rate of growth in 2023, partly due to the high cost of living in Malaysia, which led many consumers to remain cautious about their spending. The expanding range of fast-fashion...
