Abstracts

The difficulties historically seen in Brazilian society have intensified with the pandemic. A strong polarisation movement can be identified. While the base of the pyramid is finding it more difficult than ever to maintain consumption even in basic categories, high-income consumers often have a sophisticated pattern of consumption, due to the greater availability of accumulated resources, which resulted from fewer leisure options available under the restrictions imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Euromonitor International's Jewellery in Brazil report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2017-2021), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
