Abstracts

Jewellery is set to maintain growth in retail volume and current value terms in 2023, with growth for both costume and fine jewellery, although this will slow compared with previous years. Polarisation has continued in jewellery in Japan in 2023, whereby demand is being split between high-priced luxury brands and low-priced affordable brands. Although the pandemic hit Japan strongly, as well as the rest of the world, the impact on households differed by the disposable incomes of households. In t...
