Abstracts

Latin America's jewellery sales are mostly driven by fine jewellery and by Brazil but costume jewellery and Mexico are increasingly important. The regional market remains dominated by specialist stores, and is extremely fragmented, but big local and international players in both costume and fine jewellery are gaining traction. Despite a fragile economic context, the regional outlook is positive, as jewellers and retailers innovate to meet the growing demand for affordable items.

Euromonitor International's Jewellery in Latin America global briefing offers detailed strategic analysis of the global Personal Accessories market by pinpointing growth sectors and identify factors driving change. The report identifies leading companies and brands within the keenly contested, fashion-driven competitive landscape, trend developments, economic/lifestyle influences, seasonal patterns, market and distribution strategies. Forecasts illustrate how the market is predicted to develop between mature and emerging countries, threats facing the business as well as opportunities to be seized for further growth.

Product coverage: Bags and Luggage, Jewellery, Watches, Writing Instruments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
