Abstracts

Jewellery is set to see positive performances in both retail volume and current value terms in 2023. This is largely due to post-pandemic economic recovery, the return to stability in employment, and progress in consumer spending. This is closely tied to the return of in-person activities, whereby casual gatherings, in-person or hybrid work arrangements, and the return to in-person education have been encouraging more Mexican consumers to follow the latest trends in jewellery, especially (due to...
