Abstracts

In 2023, overall jewellery is set to register a decline in current value terms, despite low growth in retail volume terms. This is expected to result in minimal value growth across overall personal accessories, as jewellery accounted for nearly 50% of value sales of personal accessories in 2022. However, while costume jewellery is expected to enjoy a highly optimistic performance, with double-digit current value growth, fine jewellery is anticipated to suffer from a series of strong negative imp...
