Abstracts

Jewellery sales in Western Europe slumped in 2020, with Coronavirus (COVID-19), and the measures taken to try and control its spread, having a negative impact on fine jewellery sales in particular. The closure for extended periods of non-essential bricks-and-mortar stores, including jewellery and watch specialist retailers, hit sales, as did the consumer tendency to prioritise spending on more essential products. Sales are immediately expected to pick up again in 2021.

Euromonitor International's Jewellery in Western Europe global briefing offers detailed strategic analysis of the global Personal Accessories market by pinpointing growth sectors and identify factors driving change.
