Abstracts

J&J Inc.'s consumer division kept a steady growth in 2017. The division's sales have mainly been stemming from skin care products thanks to strong well-established brands such as Aveeno or Neutrogena. The company's sales in baby products has been challenged over the past year with the need to reconnect to increasingly demanding consumer segments, such as millennial parents, but also adapting to the growing competition of private labels, and, more recently natural and/or organic brands.
