Abstracts

In 2016 the company announced that it is to reduce its number of workers in Spain by around 200 people, which is believed to be part of a new restructuring plan the company is developing at a global level. This process claims to be able to maximise the company's resources which should allow it to invest further in research and development activities. Meanwhile the company is also set to continue developing new resources to help support patients with their treatments such as the Nicorette app whi...
