Abstracts

Juice in Hungary faced significant challenges in 2023 due to high inflation rates and rising prices. Across all juice categories, except for coconut and other plant waters, sales volume experienced a substantial decline. This decline can be attributed to the sensitivity of consumers to price increases for non-essential products. As a result, consumers opted for more affordable drinks with lower juice content, reducing demand for premium juice. Launches of not-from-concentrate juices were put on...
