Abstracts

Off-trade volume sales rose robustly for juice in 2023, following a year of strong double-digit growth in 2022. Juice drinks (up to 24% juice) remained the largest member of the overall category and has been leading growth in terms of off-trade volume sales for three consecutive years. It is important to note that sales were sustained largely through the offer of extremely competitive prices when compared to competing products from other soft drinks categories. While many products from other cat...
