Abstracts

Continuing the trend from 2015, juice remained under the strong influence of two different factors in 2016. The decline in the purchasing power of middle-income consumers as a result of the general stagnation in the Iranian economy remained a key reason for the decline in off-trade volume growth. The relatively low base of the category and thus extreme potential for growth, however, acted as a key driver for improvement in per capita consumption in 2016. However, the strong impact of the first f...
