Abstracts

Juice is set to register a negative performance in off-trade volume terms for the third year in a row in 2023. As with carbonates, this is partly because the cost-of-living crisis has led Dutch consumers to rein in discretionary spending, but mainly the result of rising health awareness. While juice products have traditionally had a more wholesome image than many other types of soft drinks, in recent years people have become increasingly conscious that they are naturally high in sugar, with info...
