Abstracts

On-trade sales of juice plummeted in 2020 as Russia's COVID-19 measures caused widespread disruption to the country's foodservice industry. However, this decline did not have a significant negative impact on total volume sales of juice because the share of the foodservice channel is still small in Russia, with off-trade volume sales remaining relatively stable. Off-trade volume sales benefited from the lockdown with consumers forced to spend more time at home, with many people looking for health...
