Abstracts

Kering SA is a relative newcomer to luxury, arriving with a bang in 1999 with its acquisition of Gucci. Following an acquisition race with leading luxury player LVMH and the disposal of mass-market retail brands including Fnac and La Redoute, it ranked third in the global luxury goods market in 2014. However, it remains overly dependent on Gucci, and the iconic brand is struggling with falling sales. However, the Yves St Laurent and Bottega Veneta brands have performed well.
