Abstracts

Weight management food and beverages is a US$158.3 billion market, which is continually evolving with changing consumer preferences and new scientific insights. Perceptions of fat, protein, carbohydrates, sugar and fibre are in continual flux, and quick-fix weight loss goals have given way to long-term wellness and chronic disease prevention. Conventional weight loss products have seen a decline in developed markets, while their potential has not yet been exploited in emerging economies.

Euromonitor International's Key Trends in Global Weight Management global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the health and wellness marketplace, highlights buzz topics, emerging trends, categories and geographies as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing wellbeing market - be they new product developments, packaging and ingredients innovations, introduction of new regulatory schemes, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or retail pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Health and Wellness by Category, Health and Wellness by Prime Positioning, Health and Wellness by Type.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
