Abstracts

While juice continued to expand in retail volume terms in 2023, growth was down substantially on 2022 and also lower than the CAGR for the entire review period. This was partly explained by increasing maturity, but mainly attributable to rising prices and falling purchasing power among consumers as Kenya continued to experience high inflation due to factors related to the global recovery from the pandemic and Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Upward pressure on unit prices was further exacerbated by...
