Abstracts

The future trajectory of Lawson's strategic direction could well be impacted by a new majority owner at the start of the forecast period. Mitsubishi has made a tender offer to JPY144 billion to increase its share in the company to 50%, with this likely to result in the company benefiting from stronger financial support. Lawson is supporting this tender offer, which is expected to enable the company to expand more rapidly and remain resilient in the face of intensifying competition within conveni...
