Abstracts

LBR Lácteos Brasil went bankrupt in early 2013, and faced many financial and operational problems during the year. Only in October 2013 did the company finally receive approval from its creditors to start a financial recovery project. The strategic direction for LBR focuses on reducing its liabilities and reducing inactivity in its production facilities, in order to regain credibility with the market and with its creditors, and as a consequence, increase the production of drinking milk products...
