Abstracts

In spite of continuing rising prices in 2023, limited services restaurant registered an increase in constant value sales and there was also further opening of new outlets. However, profit margins were under strain, as costs also continued to rise. These rising costs, after having just coped with the difficulties imposed by the pandemic, led to casualties. Several chains, including Sierra Nevada, Presto and Buffalo Wings, have been forced to restructure and have set in place new payment plans wit...
