Abstracts

Current value and transaction growth rates for limited-service restaurants in the Czech Republic in 2023 were down substantially on the previous two years. This was partly due to the stabilisation of consumption patterns following a post-pandemic boom, but also attributable to persistently high inflation, which continued to erode purchasing power among the population and drive up menu prices. Leading player McDonald's increased its prices several times over 2022-2023, for example, as did other m...
