Abstracts

Soaring inflation pushed menu prices in limited-service restaurants to new highs in 2023, although operators are always careful when considering price adjustments, especially for their signature meals. Core target audiences, such as students and income groups on a low budget, rely on affordable menus and it is critical to keep the prices of signature items as low as possible. In response to the 25-30% price hikes seen during 2022 and 2023, novel value propositions are gaining traction. For examp...
