Abstracts

The positive performance of limited-service restaurants in 2023 was aided by the lifting of COVID-19 restrictions in March 2022, allowing limited-service restaurants to appeal through the convenience they provide. In addition, the high cost of living and the loss of purchasing power drove a solid performance, providing cheaper menus than full-service players. The active competitive landscape further drove sales, with international chains such as McDonald's, KFC, Burger King, Taco Bell and Subway...
