Abstracts

Limited-service restaurants was significantly impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic in 2020, albeit to a lesser extent than other types of consumer foodservice in Russia. Nonetheless, limited-service restaurants were closed by government order along with other foodservice types and other non-essential businesses, as the country introduced measures to stem community transmission of the virus. Therefore, overall current value sales, transactions and transactions all declined over 2020, h...
