Abstracts

Limited-service restaurants continued to record substantial current value growth in 2023, although the number of transactions and outlets remained stagnant. This was due to multiple factors as the economic environment in the UK continued to struggle, challenged both by inflation and geopolitical factors including the war in Ukraine, which continued to impact the supply chain in European countries. The rise of inflation levels in the UK in 2023 was less significant than in 2022, but prices contin...
