Abstracts

During COVID-19, lodging in Japan suffered greatly due to various travel restrictions, leading many outlets to close temporarily, or even some to close altogether. However, in 2023, when travel restrictions were lifted completely early in the year, lodging in Japan has been facing difficulties meeting demand with the supply available. Rooms have been booked nearly at full capacity following the return of both domestic and inbound tourists. In addition, overall inflation and the rising of cost of...
