Abstracts

In 2023, the average daily room rate in Singapore, across different hotel tiers, continued to reach an all-time high due to two major reasons, namely the labour shortage and increased demand from Chinese tourists. Singapore was no exception to the enormous global labour shortage that the hospitality sector was experiencing. In fact, Singaporean lodgings and the tourism industry as a whole had already found it challenging to employ and retain staff even before the pandemic emerged. Long hours and...
