Abstracts

As international tourist arrivals to South Africa experience a resurgence, there has been a significant increase in airlift capacity, reaching levels comparable to pre-pandemic years. Cape Town International Airport, in particular, has reported a rise in airlift capacity, surpassing numbers seen in 2019. This boost in capacity has facilitated the growth of lodging in the Western Cape, which has now exceeded pre-pandemic levels, especially in luxury and upscale hotels. The expansion can be attrib...
