Abstracts

Shocked to the core by COVID-19 in 2020 and the first half of 2021, hotels in France claims a recovery better than many other European countries in 2021 and especially in 2022, though recovery has not been homogeneous throughout all of hotels or all of France. Some regions and hotel types have already equalled or surpassed 2019 levels, while others are yet to get there as results vary depending on destinations and positioning. For example, while 2021 was a great year for Brittany and New Aquitai...
