Abstracts

In 2010, beauty and personal care achieved stronger growth than in 2009, recovering from one of the biggest slowdowns in its recent history. However, despite the improved growth prospects, the operating environment has remained challenging. Non-store retailing channels such as direct selling and internet retailing consistently outperform the market and offer significant opportunities, with up to 40% of value sales of beauty products generated through such channels in some markets.

Euromonitor International's Looking for Growth: Non-Store Opportunities Within Beauty and Personal Care global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Beauty and Personal Care market and highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The report also explores developments in the premium vs mass/masstige segments, and the evolution of novel beauty concepts.

Product coverage: Baby Care, Bath and Shower, Colour Cosmetics, Deodorants, Depilatories, Fragrances, Hair Care, Men's Grooming, Oral Care, Oral Care Excl Power Toothbrushes, Premium Cosmetics, Sets/Kits, Skin Care, Sun Care.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
