Abstracts

Women's luxury bags continued to be an important growth driver, with sales rising by 9% in current value and 3% in volume terms in 2012. Increasing shifts towards accessorisation have reinforced the position of bags as primary objects of desire amongst UK women. Not only do they clearly display brand association, but they are also considered worthwhile purchase pieces by many consumers in that they can be used daily unlike designer apparel, hence making consumers more willing to save up and...
