Abstracts

In 2015, luxury accessories reached total value sales of £458 million, following 2% year-on-year growth. UK consumers continued their love affair with luxury accessories, looking to high-end designers and catwalk trends for inspiration. Luxury accessories continued to be viewed as status symbols. Sunglasses and costume jewellery, in particular, are used to complete and complement an outfit or a specific look, and indicate attention to detail. Luxury accessories are also cheaper way to update a...
