Abstracts

In 2018, luxury cars in Germany saw value sales remain stable. With a favourable economic climate, consumers remained interested in buying luxury cars which offer a high level of comfort and status. In addition, the share of German households with an annual disposable income of over EUR300,000 has been rising steadily. While these factors are expected to remain relevant over the forecast period, luxury cars will also be affected by the rise of new technologies, from digitalisation to electric ve...
