Abstracts

Luxury cars registered positive retail value growth in 2018. Luxury cars are still in demand by high net worth individuals given that they are the ultimate status symbol. While most of the population are faced with declining disposable income and rising unemployment, a small handful of high net worth individuals have, over the years, managed to keep luxury cars growing, except for the occasional year when there was a decline in the number sold. Luxury cars are also bought as collectors' items. H...
