Abstracts

Small four-door vehicles and small SUVs were the most popular luxury car formats in 2018, among younger consumers and families with children respectively. The strong car frame is the most appealing point for consumers who choose small SUVs. Small sized cars are preferred in South Korea, as large cars are not well suited to domestic roads, which are much narrower than in Western countries, and parking spaces are limited. Although consumers have the desire to own a large four-door luxury car, this...
