Abstracts

In 2018, the number of luxury cars sold in Ukraine should nearly reach the pre-crisis level seen in 2013. Consumer confidence is returning after the political and economic crises of 2014 and 2015, with the prices of luxury cars becoming comparatively stable again. This coupled with the postponed demand for luxury cars has contributed towards a healthy performance for the category in 2017 and 2018. Whilst sales of mass market cars have been significantly affected by the importing of old cars from...
