Abstracts

In 2012, sales of luxury cigars saw 8% current value growth and 8% volume growth. The category proved to be resistant to economic downturn. Luxury cigars are purchased primarily by affluent people who do not stop smoking because of a worsening economic situation. Generally, the market for luxury cigars is small, and much younger and less developed than in most European countries. The enrichment of Polish society, openness to new trends and the desire to try something new are contributing to a...
