Abstracts

After seeing a slight current value decline in 2020, luxury eyewear is set to see a rapid rebound in 2021 and exceed the 2019 level of value sales. Rapid recovery has been driven by consumers' rising demand for eyewear and premiumisation. The incidence of eye problems is increasing year-on-year in China, and China is the market with the highest myopia rate and demand for spectacles globally. Compared with a global average of 30%, about half of the Chinese population has different degrees of myop...
