Abstracts

Even if luxury spectacle frames start to recover value sales towards the end of 2021, this will not be sufficient to prevent a further small decline in 2021 and will certainly not offset the drop of 2020. The category suffered from optician closures during the lockdown period and many subsequently remained closed for an extended period, despite being permitted to open, for safety reasons. As opticians tend to dominate sales of spectacle frames, this led to a dramatic decline of sales in 2020.
